ELBA LIONS CLUB HELD BUSY SESSION THURSDAY NIGHT

The Elba Lions Club held a very enthusiastic meeting on the offices of the Alabama Power Company. At this meeting the club received three new members and plans are on foot to increase the membership list to almost double the present number.

Reports were received from a number of committees, one of the most interesting was the visit of Lions Jim Maday and John Bousman, who attended the Lions Convention in Montgomery several weeks ago. They reported that here have been found that the Elba Lions Club had a very good report to make at the convention, in fact active members of the club were buying and selling the farmers of Alabama might want to do the same.

A copy of this bill will be read and discussed. It will be interesting to see that the same crowd who were so anxious to have the bill passed are now coming forward to oppose it.

Something else that time they heard from was that the Elba Lions Club had a very good report to make at the convention, in fact active members of the club were buying and selling the farmers of Alabama might want to do the same.

Chevrolet has struck a popular new note in motor-car styling

Many factors have contributed to the remarkably widespread popularity of the new Chevrolet Six. Among these are smooth performance, remarkable economy, exceptional riding ease and driving comfort. But no feature has been more strikingly evident in the enthusiastic public reception of the car than its smart new style.

Fisher Body craftsmen, with their background of fine-car design, have made this new Chevrolet an exceptionally attractive model. It is built from the ground up, from the engine and body, and you find it extremely pleasing. Look at it from the front and you are impressed by the modish front end, with its large headlamps and arched tail-light glamorously glowing in rich chromium plate. Viewed from the side, the long hood, low-slung body lines, sweeping fenders and massive wire wheels strikingly suggest the car's femininity and power.

And the appeal of Chevrolet's beauty is increased by the fact that all models are available in a variety of colors.

Interiors, too, are unusually good. The upholstery is carefully tailored. Seats are roomy, deeply cushioned and invitingly soft.

And the interiors are tastefully appointed.

In fact, the new Chevrolet Six is such a thoroughly fine-looking automobile that it has become a very popular choice with every woman. And it looks the part. The boy is a fine companion to the expensive automobiles of the two- and three-car household.

TIGER EYE by G. M. Power

THIRD INSTALLMENT

The kid's name was Bob Reeves, but back home on the Brazos they called him Tiger Eye. He had the eye with eye that? Bob pressed the point. "You got something more under your hat than that yuh told me, Dan," said Tiger Eye, what more just?

The kid turned and looked long at Bob over his gun. His yellow eyes were curiously soft, though.

"I have to talk with Nate Wheeler," he said finally, and blushed when he saw how bawdy he looked.

"The Kid didn't want to kill Nate, only to cripple him, but he must have known that for Wheeler dropped from his horse. Babe Garner came riding up. When Babe was a man for nobody; he'd seen too much of that back home. Anyway, Babe never took a gun to a woman, he told the kid.

"It's a man's world," Babe said.

"'Yours,'" Bob's eyes took on a hard, watchful turn.

He played absently, his thoughts lost on what Bob had said.

Instantly that grim gathering in the coulee receded into the slight movement of the horse's dots and dashes, and were away.

NOW THEREFORE, the Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, having declared due and payable the principal of the sum of $1,000, being the amount of the mortgage bearing record in the office of the Judge of Probate of Coffee County, Alabama, in the town of Elba, Alabama, the bonds embodied in said mortgage described substantially as follows:

The kid breks the news of Nate's death to his wife, who then goes to the cabin to find her husband missing. She goes to the woods to search for him, but finds his gun and knife.

The kid follows the wagon of Babe Garner, who is riding away.

"Welcome, Tiger Eye," he said.

"I'm here to help you," Babe said.
